

JOB POSTING

Housing Coordinator

For over 30 years, Aunt Leah's Place has helped prevent children in foster care from becoming homeless, and mothers in need from losing custody of their children throughout Metro Vancouver. To support them on their journey to self-sufficiency, we provide supported housing, job training and coaching on essential life skills.

We work proactively at the 'entry' and 'exit' points of the foster care system, helping low-income families maintain custody of their children and for foster youth readying to 'age out' with supports similar to what modern parents do for their own adult children in transition.

Aunt Leah's has an immediate and exciting opportunity for a full-time regular Housing Coordinator. We are looking for someone who is passionate about working for a non-profit organization, enhancing the lives of youth, and supporting social programming through a variety of activities.
