

Link Housing First Outreach Worker

The Link program offers youth who have aged out of government care the community, resources and opportunities to help them achieve their goals and transition successfully from foster care into adulthood. Youths receive access to a transition worker who provides one-on-one support and helps them apply for jobs, learn new practical skills, and develop a plan for their future.

Aunt Leah's is growing and expanding its work that helps prevent children in foster care from becoming homeless and mothers in need from losing custody of their children. To support them on their journey to self-sufficiency, we provide supported housing, job training, and coaching on essential life skills.

This growth means we are hiring! If you are passionate about ensuring youth in and from foster care have similar supports akin to their parented peers, and are interested in working at a Top 10 charity in Canada as ranked by Charity Intelligence you might be interested in working at Aunt Leah's Place in this full time regular position.
